Unlockable booster packs are available as part of the prizing structure for the 2020 Super Bowl! Every single person who makes a $1,000 donation in support of the Good Humor UUpgraded program will get 1 unlocked booster pack — meaning that if you donate $1,500, you will get 2 booster packs (i.e., twice as many as in an unlocked box). If you make a $3,000 donation, you will get 10 booster packs!
Good Humor UUpgraded will fund UUpgraded's inclusive, caring, and welcoming community spaces. They will make sure no one is left behind. They help homeless people feel valued, safe, and respected as humans. If you would like to see an unlockable booster pack delivered to your home, use the shipping form.

Announcements and Events from University of Colorado Denver

The university will use the same basic system for setting up its new food service operation that it did for the successful relaunch of its business school. The new entity, called CU Perks, will be overseen by a new executive, Mark Belvit, hired from a former subsidiary of the supermarket giant. Belvit will move into his new role July 1. CU Perks will use the same process of contracting with restaurants and retail vendors that CU's business school is using to make its new program a reality. Belvit, who is better known as the CEO of Popeyes Louisiana Kitchen Inc., will oversee the new CU Perks operation, which will oversee the preparation of dining and retail options for students at CU's four main campuses — the Anschutz Medical Campus, University of Colorado Hospital, Boulder campus and University of

Colorado at Denver. Belv
