plaintiff had chosen to sign the application for submission on approval by January 17, as requested by Eichler's counsel, it was incumbent upon plaintiff to so inform the court, and plaintiff could not attribute any fault for the error to Eichler's motion. [7] Eichler relies upon City of Torrance v. Superior Court (1959) 51 Cal.2d 430 [333 P.2d 729], where the court, in reversing the trial court's award of sanctions, held that the findings of the trial court, regarding good cause, were supported by substantial evidence. We do not find City of Torrance applicable to the facts of this case in view of the fact that, in that case, the evidence supported a finding of lack of good cause. [8] Section 949.6, subdivision (a), reads: "If an offer or demand for arbitration was made in writing, any party to the controversy may, upon written notice to the offeror or demandreceiver, forthwith demand in writing the trial of the controversy by suit or by the reference of the controversy for trial by jury. If the offer or demand is rejected and the applicant files suit as aforesaid, the application to the court for an order directing arbitration shall be stayed if an answer or a demurrer is filed, or an answer or demurrer is served; and the court shall proceed summarily to trial of the issue whether any party to the arbitration agreement is in default, or has waived his right to arbitration, or any other issue relevant to an order directing such arbitration. The court shall order arbitration if it determines that an agreement to arbitrate the controversy exists, unless it determines that the agreement is null and void under subdivision (c)." [9] Plaintiff cites Madden v. Kaiser Foundation Hospitals (1976) 17 Cal.3d 699 [131 Cal. Rptr. 882, 552 P.2d 1178] and Colton v. Amason (1944) 67 Cal. App.2d 8
